IMPORTANT

No part of this document shall be reproduced, in any form or by means, without permission in writing from the Gambling Regulatory Authority of Singapore (the “Authority”).

The Authority makes no warranty or representation whatsoever with regard to the information in this document. The Authority assumes no responsibility or liability for any consequences (financial or otherwise) suffered directly or indirectly by any person who enter into any commercial activities upon reliance on any information in this document.

The Authority may, at any time, amend, modify or supplement any information in this document.

This document does not in any way affect the exercise by the Authority of any of the Authority’s other rights or powers under the Act, or the regulations or rules made thereunder. In addition, this document does not in any way bind the Authority to grant any approval for or exemption from any matter for which approval is required under any written law in Singapore.

This document shall not affect any regulatory requirements of any other competent authority in Singapore.

Persons who may be in doubt about how the information in this document may affect them or their commercial activities are advised to seek independent legal advice or any other professional advice they may deem appropriate.

DESIGNATED TOURIST ATTRACTIONS

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 Under Regulation 2 of the Casino Control (Advertising) Regulations 2010, designated tourist attraction means “a place designated as a tourist attraction and listed on the official website of the Authority at <https://www.gra.gov.sg> as such”.
- 1.2 This document amends and supersedes in its entirety the list of designated tourist attractions dated 25 January 2024, bearing reference GRA/N/24/0006, with effect from 14 August 2026.
- 1.3 All terms used in this document, unless the context otherwise requires or otherwise defined, shall have the same meanings as in the Casino Control Act 2006 and any regulations made thereunder.
