- 3.11.1 If only one Active Player remains, the Player shall win the Pot and is not obligated to show his Hand.
- 3.11.2 If two or more Active Players remain:
- a. It shall be the obligation of the Player who last Raised in the Final Betting Round to show his Hand first.

- b. If a Player reveals his Hand upon the completion of the Final Betting Round before the Dealer flips the Game Marker to SHOWDOWN, that Hand shall still be considered valid if there are no further decisions to be made by any Player in the Round of play, i.e. BET, Call, Check, Raise, All-in or Fold.
 - c. If all Players had opted to Check in the 4th Betting Round, the first Active Player on the left of the Dealer Button position shall be obligated to show his Hand. In the event that no Player Raises in the 4th Betting Round, it shall be the obligation of the Player who was the first to place a BET in the 4th Betting Round to show his Hand first.
 - d. All remaining Players shall, if holding a Five-card Hand of equal or higher ranking, show their Hands.
 - e. The winning Hand shall be the highest-ranking Five-card Hand consisting of any combination from the five Community Cards and the Player's two Hole Cards.

If a Player chooses to go All-in, this shall be accompanied by placement of an All-in button in front of him. In the event the Dealer fails to place the All-in button, the Round of play shall continue.
- 3.12.1 A Player who does not have a Table stake of sufficient value to meet a BET, Call or Raise and who wishes to continue in the Round of play as an Active Player must Bet the remaining amount of his Table Stake (All-in). He remains in the Round of play as an Active Player, but does not place any further Bets in any subsequent Betting Round(s).
 - 3.12.2 When a Player goes All-in for less than the amount required to BET, Call or Raise, all subsequent Players must Call to any previous amount required to BET in the Betting Round, or Call and Raise (and if necessary start a Side Pot).

- 3.14 Actions and gestures indicating a Fold, Check, BET, Call or Raise shall always have precedence over verbal statements denoting such action and gesture, and such actions and gestures are considered binding on the Players making the actions and gestures. This means that even if a Player verbally declares a Fold, Check, BET, Call or Raise, a Player must perform the corresponding action or gesture. These actions must be performed in a clear manner.

4. Settlement

- 4.1 The House shall levy a fee at each poker table in the form of a Rake. The Rake shall be determined by the House in its absolute discretion, and shall not exceed 5%. The Rake shall be collected from the Main Pot and any Side Pot(s) respectively, and such amounts shall be calculated and collected by the Dealer. Rakes shall first be collected from the Main Pot and then from the first Side Pot, the second Side Pot and so on. The amount of Rake collected must not exceed the overall cap set by the House which shall be clearly displayed on a signage at the table.
- 4.2 Each Hand shall be played to the conclusion and the Pot or Pots shall not be divided by agreement between two or more Players.
- 4.3 In the event that a Player Bets and all subsequent Players decide to Fold, for the purpose of calculating the Rake, such Bet shall not form part of the Pot. For the avoidance of doubt, in the event that a Player Raises and all subsequent Players decide to Fold, for the purpose of calculating the Rake, the Raise (i.e. the incremental Bet) does not form part of the Pot.
- 4.4 The Active Player who obtains the highest-ranking Five-card Hand shall win the Pot(s).
- 4.5 When two or more Players hold winning Hands of equal ranking, the Pot or Pots shall be divided equally to the lowest chip denomination in the Pot(s). In the event there is an extra chip after the split, the extra chip shall be given to the first Active Player to the left of the Dealer Button position.

5.1.2 no outcome has been established i.e. none of the available Bets has conclusively won or lost, the Round of play shall be Voided.

a. before any Player has looked at his Hole Cards and the cards cannot be Reconstructed; or

b. after any Player has looked at his Hole Cards.

the current Round of play shall be Voided, and the outcome and settlement of all previous Round(s) of play shall stand.

- 5.3 If a card is found face up in the Card Shoe or is exposed while the Dealer is distributing the cards to the Player, the exposed card shall be discarded and shall not be used in the Round of play.

A new Player joining a table in the first Orbit shall be informed by the Dealer that he is not required to pay the Big Blind unless he sits on the seat where the Big Blind is to be posted.
- 5.4.1 In the event a Player is relocated by a Pit Employee to another table with an ongoing game, the Player is not required to pay the Big Blind or Small Blind to join the game, with the exception of the situation where the Player sits on the seat where the Big Blind is to be posted, then he shall pay the Big Blind to join the table.

The House shall have the sole discretion to deem that a Player has left the game if he consecutively misses two turns or has not previously indicated his intention to return to the game.

- 5.5 If a Player is absent from the table when he is due to place the Small Blind, the Player on the left of the absent Player shall post the Big Blind and the Round of play shall proceed without a Small Blind. On the subsequent Round of play, the Dealer button is moved to the empty seat of the absent Player and the Players on the left of the absent Player shall post the Small Blind and the Big Blind accordingly.
- 5.6 If a Player is absent from the table when he is due to place the Big Blind, the Player on the left of the absent Player shall post the Big Blind, a "missed Blind" button shall be placed on the position of the absent Player and the Round of play shall proceed. On the subsequent Round of play, the "missed Blind" button shall remain at the empty seat of the absent Player and the Players on the left of the absent Player shall post the Small Blind and the Big Blind accordingly.
- 5.7 If the Dealer fails to discard the first card from the Card Shoe during the Round of play, that Round of play shall be Reconstructed and the House shall have the absolute discretion to determine whether or not the cards are capable of being Reconstructed. The Round of play shall be Voided if any Player has seen their card(s) or the cards cannot be Reconstructed. For the avoidance of doubt, only the current Round of play shall be Voided, the outcome and settlement of all previous Round(s) of play shall stand.
- 5.8 If the Dealer fails to discard the Burnt Card during any particular Betting Round and before commencement of the subsequent Betting Round (if any), that Betting Round shall be Reconstructed if possible and the House shall have the absolute discretion to determine whether or not the cards are capable of being Reconstructed. If the Cards in that Betting Round are capable of being Reconstructed, the Dealer shall then resume and continue the Round of play.
